

VACANCY: POLICY AND DATA ANALYST – Association of Police and Crime Commissioners.

Salary: £30,000 - £35,000 plus London weighting if applicable.

Fixed contract or secondment for initial 6 months, with an option to extend.

Are you passionate about using data to inform policy?

Are you interested in supporting Police and Crime Commissioners across England and Wales to understand data trends in the crime and justice environment. From arrest through to the impact of sentencing on rehabilitation?

If so, we would love to hear from you.

You will be working for the Association of Police and Crime Commissioners (APCC) in this important role. Helping to shape our policy on crime and justice.

You will be accustomed to providing high quality briefings, data and analysis through the delivery of verbal or written briefings in sector-wide meetings.

You'll need to be able to work confidently and effectively with elected politicians, senior stakeholders, as well as with APCC colleagues, using your skills to create clear and usable narratives from data sources across policing, criminal justice and the prison and probation service. Your input and skills will support the APCC and its members to drive strategic change in policing, criminal justice, and community safety.

This is a varied and rewarding role, providing you with an opportunity to develop your skills and gain experience in a crime and justice policy environment.

If this role interests you, please get in touch.

For an informal discussion about the role please contact the APCC's Senior Policy Manager at enzo.riglia@apccs.police.uk

To apply, please send:

A copy of your CV and a covering letter (no more than two pages) setting out how you meet the Job Description and Person Specification.

Applications must be submitted by 5pm on 6th November 2023 by emailing tsahota@ifteam.co.uk

The APCC is an equal opportunities employer and positively encourages applications from suitably qualified and eligible candidates regardless of sex, race, disability, age, sexual orientation, transgender status, religion or belief, marital status, or pregnancy and maternity
